Which is better – to be ill or to be well?

A friend came one day to a house where there were three children: a boy and two girls. Two of them – the boy and one of the girls – were ill. They were in bed. Friends and all the members of the family were sorry for them. They brought toys and nice things to eat and gave them to the children who were ill in bed.

The other little girl sat in a corner and cried. One of the friends, who liked children, went up to her and asked, “Why are you crying? You are not ill.”

“No,” said the little girl, “I am not ill, so they don’t bring me any presents.”

A Small Picture.

A rich man once asked a great painter to paint a small picture for him. Next day the painter came and brought him the small picture. "It is a beautiful picture", said the rich man. "How much do you want for it?"

"One thousand dollars," answered the painter.

"One thousand dollars for such a small picture?" cried the rich man. "You painted it in one day and you want one thousand dollars for one day's work?"

"Yes, I painted it in one day, but I worked thirty years in order to learn how to paint it in one day," answered the painter.
